- 2) The residencies under the Art Residencies Programme are dedicated to a wide group of artists – creators of visual art, writers, performance artists and individuals involved in the popularisation of science – and they consist in providing the residents with studios designated by Art Inkubator in which they can undertake artistic activities.
- 3) In AiR Goyki 3, we are interested in creative process and dialogue with artists. We are driven by critical reflection on the modern world and society. We do not specify what end results should be; we do not impose topics. We support well-thought-out activities and research-focused projects referring to the place of their implementation, i.e. the city of Sopot and the space of Art Inkubator, as well as those focused on building relationships between people and their surroundings. By inviting residents from various fields, we hope to promote networking and cooperation which will result in multidisciplinary projects.
